

ARMY RESERVE TEEN PANEL

Speaking Out for Army Reserve Youth

What do panel members do?

- > Participate in Teen Issue Forums
- > Serve as junior advisors for Command Teen Councils and regional Youth Leadership, Education and Development (YLEAD) programs
- > Volunteer at events such as Family Readiness Group meetings, Family Days, and Yellow Ribbon Reintegration Programs (commit eight hours per month)
- > Establish partnerships between AR youth and leadership
- > Participate in service learning projects
- > Receive training in leadership and teen resilience

What are the requirements?

- > Enrolled in 9th, 10th, or 11th grade
- > Maintain a 2.5 or better GPA
- > Be a dependent of an Army Reserve Soldier
- > Serve a two year term
- > Commit to attend up to three meetings per year
- > Ability to represent and voice Army Reserve children and youth issues and find solutions

How do I apply?

- > Visit www.arfp.org/cyss to download an application packet
- > Applications will be accepted through 30 November 2015
- > Check us out on Facebook
www.facebook.com/ARTeenPanel

Who do I contact with questions?

Kendra Edwards Waters, CYSS Youth Services Manager
Contractor: Odyssey Marketing Group
kendra.edwards3.ctr@mail.mil or 770-754-9900 ext 506

Ann Nacino, CYSS Youth Services Specialist
Contractor: Odyssey Marketing Group
xania.d.nacino.ctr@mail.mil or 562-936-7633

www.arfp.org
We Inspire and Empower
Anytime. Anywhere. 24x7x365
We're here for you! Call: 866-345-8248

